

Posted on Fri, May. 16, 2008

More than 140 students take part in team dance competition

BY MITCH MITCHELL

STAR-TELEGRAM STAFF WRITER

Sosaia Ngalo and Jayce Palmer of Wilshire Elementary in Euless dance during the team match competition Thursday.

ARLINGTON -- More than 140 dancers had all the rhythm but none of the sweat onstage as they danced for gold, silver and bronze awards in the Dancing Classrooms North Texas Third Annual Colors of the Rainbow Team Match.

Twelve teams of fifth-graders from the Hurst-Euless-Bedford and Dallas school districts descended on the Metro Center at Fielder Road Baptist Church on Thursday to strut their stuff. The winners are:

Gold level: Hurst Hills Elementary from H-E-B; and Martin Luther King Learning Center, Barbara Jordon Elementary and Lisbon Elementary, from Dallas.

Silver level: River Trails Elementary, Midway Park Elementary and Bell Manor Elementary from H-E-B; and David Burnet Elementary from Dallas.

Bronze level: Shady Brook Elementary and Wilshire Elementary from H-E-B; and J.T. Brashear Elementary and Blanton Elementary from Dallas.

MITCH MITCHELL, 817-548-5411
mitchmitchell@star-telegram.com

